ANNOUNCEMENTS

The auction on the S. A. Bailey farm which was to have been held Wednes-day has been postponed until today, Thursday, Aug. 31st. See adv. BREED THEATER.

The bill of high grade motion pictures at the Breed today is headed by the exquisite story of high life as it is, entitled The Snare of Society, Appearing in this beautiful production is the very popular pair, Miss Lawrence and Mr. Johnson, who, with a superby plot to be enacted amid gorgeous surroundings, make of this picture all that could be desired. It tells of a young society wife who is a steady loser at bridge and in desperation borrows from one of her husband's chums, giving a ring she had just received from her husband as security. Later the fellow proudly shows his friend's wife's ring at the club, and the husband hears her name mentioned. She wife's ring at the club, and the nus-band hears her name mentioned. She refuses to tell of the loss of the ring and starts for the home of the man who holds them, finally obtaining them by gambling. The finale of the picture is extremely beautiful, showing the loving husband struggling to decide between love and the snars of so-

AUDITORIUM TODAY.

What looks like the best show yet offered at the Auditorium for the ast three days of this week. It is last three days of this week. It is noticeable that each succeeding show is a little better than the one before, and as the season grows on the shows will grow better and better. For to-day there are two feature acts that are positive winners. The King Bros., hereulean athletes, will present a specialty composed of feats of strength and equilibrium, culminating with a thrilling 15-foot band to hand dive. The comedy honors of the bill will go to Howe & Edwards, who present the howling trish comedy skitch The Arrival of Mr. Dooley, and it is a scream from start to finish. Lillan Berant, a sprightly vocalist and dancer, comes direct from New York with the latest ideas in songs and dances.

The B. P. O. Elks convention pictures are making a hit and the members of the local lodge have recognized many familiar faces in the picture. The management is to be congratulated on securing such an interesting and timely offering. Other pictures are The Skating Bug, a crazy comedy by the Imp Co. Thou Shalt Not Steal, a picture with a strong moral, by the Reliance All Star Stock Co., and The Bi-Centannial Celebration at Mobile. Ala., a strong industrial subject. The management of the Auditorium have several strong feature

ITALIAN CRIME WAVE Kidnapping Cases Stir New York Police to Action.

New York, August 30,-All the Ital-

New York, August 30.—All the Italian detectives in the city, seventy-five in number, were summoned to police headquarters today and assigned to stem the wave of Italian crime. The seriousness of the situation became apparent today when it was learned that the Italian government had received through its consul a list of crimes committed by natives of that country here since the first of the year and was much exercised by the showing. It was stated that the detective bureau has a list, containing the names of no less than 5,000 extialian convicts believed to be in New York city at this time. The immediate provocation of the Italian crime crusade was the two kidnapping cases reported to the police yesterday and still unsolved. In addition, police records show fourteen cases of bombthrowing since July 14.

The action of Police Commissioner Waldo today practically revives the once famous Italian detective bureau which was disbanded 'only a month ago.

CAMORRIEST LEADERS INSULTED Feet Tired-PRESIDENT OF THE COURT. Alfano and Minichiello Are Sentence

Norwich =

Viterbo, Italy, Aug. 30.—Enrico Alfano, the alleged head of the Camorrists, and Giuseppe Minichiello, another member of the Camorra, now on trial for the murder of Gennaro Cuoccolo and wife, were condemned to three months' imprisonment today for insulting Cvall Cavaliere Bianchi, the president of the court.

When the session was resumed this

When the session was resumed this morning the prisoners were again confronted with a carabineer whose testimony dealt with the finding of Cuoccolo's ring, which the carabineers allege they discovered hidden in a mattress in the house occupied by Gluseppe Salva, one of the alleged actual assemble of Coucles. Wild Tumult in the Court,

Alfano and Minichiello took offense at the manner in which questions were put to the witness and shouted, with much gesticulation, that the judge was suggesting the answers of the cara-bineer, and they succeeded in creating such confusion that the proceed-ings were interrupted.

Judge Reduced the Sentence. After the tunult had subsided the public prosecutor demanded that Ai-fano and Minichiello be tried on the the execution of his duty, and was successful in having the two chief disturbers condemned to six months imprisonment. The excited state of the prisoners, however, induced the judge to insist on the sentences being reducted to the prisoners.

State of Connecticut. County of New London, Aug. 23d, 1911.

Upon the complaint of the said Pauline H. Dressier, claiming, for the reasons therein set forth, a divorce, returnable on the first Tuesday of September, 1911, before the Superior Court in and for said County.

It appearing to and being found by the subscribing authority that the said defendant. Herman A. Dressier, is absent from this State—gone to parts unknown.

It is therefore ordered that notice of the pendency of said complaint be given said defendant by publishing this order in The Norwich Morning Bulletin, a newspaper printed in Norwich, Conn., once a week for two weeks successively, commencing on or before the 24th day of August, 1911.

HIBBERD R. NORMAN, Assistant Clerk of the Superior Court Assistant Clerk of the Superior Court for New London County. aug24Th

The application of Tryon E. Robertson, Executor of the will of the estate of Alexander C. Robertson, late of Montville, in said District, deceased, was this day heard, the application to sell real estate consisting of a farm of land with the buildings thereon situated in said Town of Montville (Mohegan), on the highway leading from Norwich to New London, containing about forty-six (46) acres, known as the Church place, a tenement house and icchouse, near the Bank Paper mill, so called, a tenement house near the Rockland Paper mill, and a tenement house on the road leading from the corner at Palmer's mill to Lewis Hurlbert's house, and bounded by said road and the property of said Hurlbert and Charles W. Comstock.

Upon due inquiry and consideration of the evidence, this Court finds that public notice was given of the pendency of said application, as directed by the Gourt on the 24th day of August, 1911, and return is true; it is Ordered, That the whole real estate described in said application be sold by Tryon E. Robertson, Executor, either at public auction or private sale, as he shall deem best, and the Court directs and the fryon E. Robertson.
